Proclaiming Christ in Hayes

Sharing our gifts.

Feeding those who are hungry.

Three weeks ago I stood at the lectern and asked you to help me feed those most in need in Hayes. Those who are not supported by the Foodbank or other charities in Hayes. The difficult to connect with, the difficult to deal with, the difficult to love.

Last Sunday at our Harvest Festival you responded in the only way you knew how. You poured out your love in bags and bags and bags of food, toiletries and treats that will make cold nights on the streets of Hayes just that little bit easier.

But you've done far more than just provide a bag of food. You have shown forth the love of Jesus Christ in Hayes in a way that nobody can deny.

You have taken hold of the hand of the most vulnerable and told them that you love them.

As we move into the colder months of the year these bags of food will go a long way to warm up the stomachs of those in need - but your love has gone a long way to warming their hearts as well.

These gifts are a gentle reminder that they are not lost. That they are part of our family and we love them just as Jesus loves all of us.

Thank you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you.

Fr. Matthew
