

ST. ANSELM

Proclaiming Christ in Hayes

Confirmation,

the next step in our own journey with God.

This Sunday we will gather not in St. Anselm, but with our dear brothers and sisters in Christ at St. Mary's in Hayes (on Church Road).

Fr. Nicholas is an old friend of the parish and in times past our confirmations have often happened at St. Mary's.

We are two parishes who have a shared theology and a shared understanding of what it means to live out a life in Christ in Hayes and so it makes so much sense for us to do more things together in this way.

Next year we'll have a procession from St. Mary's to St. Anselm (with Bishop Jonathan) for Corpus Christi; before then there will more events that we come together for.

These shared moments are a decision we make deliberately to be together to celebrate our lives and journey in Christ with our nearest brothers and sisters.

It is joyful therefore that our first joint event is a confirmation.

A decision to step forward in a life as a Christian made by a young person in their own right and in their own strength.

A moment where they stand and say to everyone, 'I am a Christian!'

Please do make a special effort to come to St. Mary's this Sunday and to share in that joyous moment and to be part of our wider family in Hayes.

Fr. Matthew

(P.S. do bring some treats for afterwards!)
